

Feature:

No.	Function	Description
1	Resource Management	Manages the transmission of various media format files within the publishing system, ensuring unified storage and shared usage of media resources.
2	Program Resources	Supports video, music, images, text, PPT, Word, Excel, and PDF files.
3	Program Interface	Supports external data sources such as weather, stock market, world time, exchange rates, and websites.
4	Program Types	Supports regular programs, looped playback, and inserted programs.
5	Terminal Management	Monitors the operational status of terminals, showing whether they are online and displaying the current playlist.
6	Terminal Grouping	Enables grouping of terminals based on management needs, such as by region or level, for efficient control.
7	Remote Upgrade	Supports remote updates of terminal software.
8	Program Templates	Allows content layout planning without requiring specific playback resources, ensuring consistent program style, format, and layout.
9	Template-based Program	Enables quick program creation based on predefined

	Creation	templates by selecting required media materials.
10	New Program Creation	Allows flexible program creation by dragging media components from the toolbar, ensuring rich content and adaptable layouts.
11	System Management	Manages company departments, roles, permissions, and users within the system.
12	Program Approval	Provides centralized approval management for programs, allowing suggestions or warnings for non-compliant content to ensure adherence to regulations.